Dear Messrs. Leary and Resende:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director William J. Casey or his representative to address the Foreign Policy Society of the Boston Latin School in February or March in Boston.

Since Mr. Casey has a full official schedule, he has asked me to extend his regrets. Due to limited resources, it is our policy not to brief secondary schools. Therefore, we are unable to send a substitute speaker from this Agency. You may wish to try State Department, which is the U.S. Government's focal point for foreign policy. Their address is:

Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs
Department of State
2201 C Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20520

Thank you for your interest. Enclosed for your information is our brochure, Intelligence: The Acme of Skill.

Sincerely,

Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Foreign Policy Society of the Boston Latin School extends a very cordial invitation to you or a CIA representative to address the senior class on CIA activities and its involvement in foreign affairs. We have set a very tentative date on the week of February 4, or possibly early March, pending on your availability of time. The meeting will either be held after school or during school, depending on extent of the presentation.

The Boston Latin School was founded in 1635, and it is the oldest and one of the finest schools in the nation. We are now celebrating our three hundred and fiftieth anniversary. The student body represents all the racial, ethnic, and socio-economic groups in the City of Boston.

We hope that you will be part of the celebration honoring the Alma Mater of Benjamin Franklin, John Hancock, Charles Sumner, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Charles Bulfinch, George Santayana as well as the father and grandfather of President John F. Kennedy.

We can assure you of a warm welcome at the Boston Latin School and a receptive respectful audience.
